

MUSIC TEACHER – VIOLIN SPECIALIST

Full-Time SGB Position | Starting Date: 11 January 2027

Closing Date: Friday, 30 October 2026

Jeppe High School for Girls is an English-medium public school situated in Kensington, Johannesburg. Educators, learners, and parents collaborate as partners in education, committed to academic excellence and individual development. The school's aim is to create well-rounded, enquiring young women who will be able to think critically and engage constructively with others. Girls are encouraged to contribute to the community and value their role in South African society.

Jeppe High School for Girls seeks the services of a dynamic, passionate, and collaborative full-time violin teacher to join our thriving Music Department.

As an integral part of our team, the successful candidate must be a strong team player who works well alongside colleagues to foster a supportive and inspiring musical environment.

Key Responsibilities

- Instrumental Instruction: Teaching individual and/or group violin lessons.
- Curricular Support: Teaching music theory and/or General Music Knowledge group classes.
- Ensemble & Co-Curricular Involvement: Playing an active role in the department's extensive extra-mural program, including coaching ensembles, supporting rehearsals, and preparing students for concerts, eisteddfods, workshops, and external examinations.
- After-Hours Commitment: Willingness and flexibility to take part in after-hours departmental activities, productions, and performances as required by the school calendar.
- Student Development: Keeping students excited, motivated, and disciplined to learn, practise, and achieve their full potential.
- Administration: Fulfilling all general administrative tasks and record-keeping as per school requirements.
- Note: The ability to teach a second instrument would be a distinct advantage.

Minimum Requirements

- Qualifications: BMus degree or a suitable equivalent professional music qualification.
- Teamwork: Proven ability to be a collaborative and supportive team player within a busy school department.
- Expertise: Sound musical knowledge of tutor books, standard repertoire, and effective pedagogical methods for violin instruction.
- Inclusivity: Understanding of teaching students with different learning styles and from a variety of backgrounds.
- Professional Skills: Well-developed communication, planning, and organisational skills.
- Advantageous: A Postgraduate Certificate in Education (PGCE), a valid SACE registration, and the ability to teach a second instrument.

Interested candidates are invited to send a letter of motivation, a concise CV, and the contact details of two recent, contactable references to:

Dr E. Kruger
Head of Music

Email: ekruger@jeppegirls.co.za

Jeppe High School for Girls reserves the right to make an appointment prior to the closing date of this vacancy should a suitable candidate be found, as well as the right not to make an appointment. An application does not entitle the applicant to an interview or appointment. Failure to meet the minimum requirements of the advertised post will result in applicants automatically disqualifying themselves from consideration. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted. If you have not heard from Jeppe High School for Girls within two weeks of the closing date, please assume that your application has been unsuccessful.